Hali Gebhardt

Hali Brooke,

First of all darling, your dad, mom and brother would like to congratulate you on your high school graduation. We want you to know how very proud and honored we are that you are our daughter/sister. We loved watching the beautiful young lady you have and continue to become. We are very proud of who you are, the decisions you've made, and the moral standards you held yourself to. We are truly delighted in knowing that God, with a little help from us, has nurtured and created such a beautiful person both inside and out. Our advice to you as you move from this place into your future is threefold and as simple as follows: (1) Love God First and Foremost. Include him in every decision you make. He will be the rock and the faith that you will need to be the constant in your life. (2) Love Your Family and Friends. These are the people who you will share your joys and sorrows with and who will be with you when no one else is around. (3) Love Yourself. God made you exactly as he wanted you to be. Find peace in this. He makes no mistakes. You are perfectly YOU. Always know Hali dear that you are loved beyond measure, and YOU were and will always be the greatest Christmas gift God has ever given us.

You changed my world and made it
a better place to be,
You will always be "Baby Ty" to me.
So sweet and small with a toothless grin
Chubby cheeks and a dimpled chin.
Where did time go? I did not see
How quickly you became a young boy, then teen!
With pride I remember back so many years
pins, tackles and touchdowns,
scapes bruises and tears.
As graduation day draws near,
I know that I should have no fear;
for you've grown into a nice, young man I see,
But know that you will always be "Baby Ty" to me.

Believe in yourself. Be grateful. Remember your manners. Never let possessions own you. Don't wait for opportunities, look for them. Don't expect life to be fair, but be thankful when it is. It is your future, your tomorrow, your dreams. You will make mistakes, learn from them and move on. Laugh. Be kind. Work hard. Pray.

As we take A Closer Look at our local businesses and organizations we realize that our community is as supportive of us as our teachers and parents. It is the people in our community who also help shape our lives. Our community is the people who support our high school by purchasing ads, providing goods, services and time to the many activities throughout the school year. The Southern Garrett HS community has always been very supportive of our academics, sports, and activities and we thank you for always being there for us. GRADUATION IS NO TIME TO LEARN
YOU HAVEN'T SAVED
ENOUGH FOR COLLEGE

Whether your child is in first grade or 12th, high school graduation is just around the corner. Fortunately, Edward Jones can help you put together a strategy to save and pay for college. Using our education funding tool, we can estimate future expenses at over 3,000 schools, and then recommend a financial strategy based on your unique needs. Remember, the longer you put off preparing for college, the harder it'll be to pay for it.

Message from Editor Emily Thomas

These last three years being a part of the yearbook staff has been a great experience. We have had many ups and downs but every year we always pull together an AMAZING yearbook! Through this class I have met many different people and it has helped me become a more outgoing person. I will miss most of the yearbook staff and I will of course miss Ms. Zumpano. To all the underclassmen and the seniors next year--good luck with everything and enjoy every moment of your time left at Southern HS. These years will go by so fast. Take my advice--slow down and experience everything that you can! And to the Class of 2011--It has been a blast! Good luck where ever life takes you. For my yearbook classmates......always remember..... Going down the mock trail the bagger meet up with Dougie where he found out the After Prom decorations had been stolen. FOLDERS! Sheetzzz. Pasta Nights. Milkshakes from DQ. AD PACKETS! GOURDS! Freddy boy. and "Borrowing Yearbooks".

Good Luck to Briana Wagner and Michelle Welch-2011-2012 senior editors!!!!!

Message from Underclassman Editor Michelle Welch

As a two year member of the Highlander yearbook staff I can say I have gained a lot from the experience and being a member of the staff has proven to me that even when starting with a totally blank slate hard work will pay off and the outcome be amazing. Of course having a great group of people to work with helps. I am a huge fan of the theme chosen this year because I feel within it there is a life lesson for all. We go through high school from the first day as shy freshman looking forward to the same things, being seniors, graduating, and getting out. When looking back memories are not found in those thoughts, but in the time waiting to get there. By focusing on the time we have now as high school students and taking a closer look at all the little moments that make up our days at Southern Garrett High School our memories can be even greater than we thought possible. As a final note I would like to thank all yearbook staff members and especially Ms. Zumpano for everything this year. I wish the class of 2011 the best of luck where ever life takes you and in whatever you choose to do. Lastly, to the class of 2012 and underclassman--enjoy every moment you have left because they will be gone before you know it.

Message from Underclassman Editor Briana Wagner

This is my second year on the yearbook staff and second semester has been interesting for the yearbook staff. Starting out was rough for the "newbies"--getting pictures, meeting deadlines, interviewing and selling ads, but over all it was a great second semester. I will never forget Spring sports which proved to be the challenging issue due to all of the rain. Congratulations to the Class of 2011 and the best of luck to you all!! And thank you to the 2010-2011 Highlander Yearbook Staff in making this a great yearbook!

Colophon

"A Closer Look" was published for the students of Southern Garrett High School at 345 Oakland Drive, Oakland, MD 21550.

Theme: "A Closer Look" was selected by the Fall Yearbook Staff.

Cover: The cover has a mission grain texture with a white fabrikoid material that includes red blue and black silkscreen and a Die cutout.

Endsheets: The endsheets are snow white stock with black ink. There is print on the front and back endsheets.

Photography:
Senior portraits were taken by LifeTouch Studios and underclassmen portraits were taken by Strawbridge Studios.

Thank you to the following individuals who provided photography to the staff: The Republican News, Shari Miller, Arthur Hanlin, George Scheffel, Rhonda Tasker, tristaterunner.com, jentayphotography.com and countless number of SHS students and parents. Thank you!

Equipment and Software: "A Closer Look" was created using Jostens' online program, Yearbook Avenue. Adobe Photoshop CS3 were used to edit photographs, create cutouts and make headlines. The majority of candid pictures were taken by a Canon Rebel XTiEOS Digital Camera.

Thank Yous: Thank you to the SHS Administration, faculty and staff for your patience and support. Thank you to Fred Reeping and Val Mease at Jostens for helping us throughout the year. Thank you to the students of SHS for being a great group of students to photograph.

Publishing: 475 copies of the 2011 Highlander Yearbook were printed by Jostens Publishing Company of State College, PA. Pages were printed on 100# glossy paper. Of the 168 pages, 38 of them were printed in color. Book trip size is 9x12.

A Message from Ms. Zumpano, Advisor

The 2010-2011 school year has gone by and an exceptional yearbook has been created by the best students at SHS. Congratulations on a job well done. You Highlander staff members should be proud.

To underclassmen who dare to return next year--so glad you are! Yearbook just wouldn't be the same without your special touch. I look forward to creating another Highlander masterpiece.

My dear seniors: Emily, McKenzie, Allison, Brooke, Vicki, Tiffany, Justine, Tess, Laurel, Gina, Erin, and good ol' Tim--Words can not express how grateful I am to have had you on the yearbook staff this year and some of you the last 2 or 3 years. You have made me laugh and cry but I have so many good memories that will last me a lifetime. Who can forget the Mock Trail? How about the Bagger? And whatever happened to those After Prom decorations. Don't forget all the trips to Sheetzes, collecting FOLDERS!!!! and AD PACKETS!!!! Each one of you are very special to me and I wish you happiness, good health and a bright future. I will miss each one of you! Thank you for all your hard work and for being a part of my life.

-Ms. Zumpano

NO PHONE ZONE

Oprah's No Phone Zone Pledge

I pledge to make my car a No Phone Zone. Beginning right now, I will do my part to help put an end to distracted driving by pledging the safest driving behavior. I commit to (choose one):

___ I will not text while I am driving

___ I will not text while driving and will use only handsfree calling if I need to speak on the phone while I am driving.

___ I will not text or use my phone while I am driving. If I need to use my phone, I will pull over to the side of the road.

I will ask other drivers I know to do their part to end distracted driving. I pledge to make a difference.
